

Insurance Coverage for Members of the Lancair Owners and Builders Organization

NATIONAIR[®]
AVIATION INSURANCE

Lancair Owners and Builders Organization (LOBO) Insurance Specialists

NationAir is honored to be named the preferred insurance provider by the Lancair Owners and Builders Organization (LOBO). As one of the nation's largest aviation insurance brokers, we are able to offer our decades of aviation insurance expertise to help Lancair owners maximize their coverage at the best possible price.

Like LOBO, NationAir is committed to helping Lancair owners manage their risks, fly as safely as possible and protect their aircraft as a valued asset.

We have taken the time to learn about the unique virtues of Lancair aircraft, and are thus able to be an effective advocate with the insurance underwriters on behalf of LOBO members.

Based on our decades of strong relationships with all major underwriters, we look forward to representing LOBO members as pilots committed to the best training and the highest level of flight safety. We have already begun to demonstrate to the underwriters that LOBO members represent a great opportunity for them to insure.

Building on LOBO's training programs, the LOBO Model Code of Conduct and various safety and maintenance seminars, NationAir will be serving as a friend and advisor to the organization. It is our expectation that the added value of our participation in the LOBO community can make it a stronger organization. Our advocacy for more favorable terms of insuring Lancair aircraft will hopefully attract more members from among Lancair owners who share LOBO's goals and high standards.

Building a Stronger Lancair Community With Every Aircraft We Insure

Aviation insurance is all we do

Our unrelenting focus and expertise in this one area of insurance is your guarantee of obtaining the best coverage for your Lancair aircraft. But most importantly, you'll be served by the most knowledgeable, best-trained, best-equipped team in the industry. NationAir is also committed to active involvement in the general aviation industry. We have a long history of membership in national and regional aviation groups. We do more than attend the conventions. Our brokers present information as speakers, serve as active committee members and are regularly quoted in leading aviation publications.

Like all NationAir policies, your coverage includes our legendary customer service and responsive claims handling. To obtain a quote from the LOBO Insurance Program, please contact:
